To Have & To Hold

Who said that marriage is easy? From the beginning of time when God joined man and woman, the challenges have not stop coming From Adam and Eve, to Abraham and Sarah you can relive the challenges of husbands and wives. However, not one episode in the bible do I recall where either left the other. They didn't leave, they cleaved.

Years ago, regardless of what would happen in families especially Black families divorce was taboo. It just did not happen, not to say there was not grounds, husbands and wives just stuck it out

Sacred Space in Cyberspace

How did we get from the country church, wooden floors, located on the dirt road to myriad manifestation of cyberspace worship? When God said “therefore go and make all nations disciples,” He had to have known about cyberspace. The 20th century revivals and conventions now are streaming live while people lay in their bed, or cook their dinner, and though most convenient, how do we teach people to use it without forsaking fellowship and the assembly of ourselves? However, we cannot deny how the whole cyberspace era has launched ministry and expanded evangelical reach. But, we also cannot deny how critical it is that we understand the responsibility of our sacred space in cyberspace.

The SMALL is the new big!

The Church Management Section will address the church that Jesus built. Jesus not only promised He would build His church, but also assured it would not perish. This section will remind leaders how Christ will keep the gates of hell from prevailing against His church. We will share church safety, small groups, church law & taxes, why members leave the church and how to deal with inconsistent giving to name a few of the Church Management Tools.

These and other tools will be made more extensively available in the Church Management Toolbox- The Word Network Website. Log into: www.thewordnetwork.org
